

Sonny Heston

Objective

Seeking employment full or part-time as a bartender in a prosperous and highly motivated atmosphere with possible opportunity for advancement.

Education

1999 - 2002 George Mason University Fairfax, VA
B.A., Visual Arts

Experience includes illustration, graphic design, computer graphics, photography, Web Design, video editing, and group projects. Completed internship in graphic design and project development at the Smithsonian's National Museum of American History.

Work Experience

1996 - 2007 KC's Restaurant Manassas, VA

Bartender

Experienced high volume food and beverage service.
Extensive inventory, overhead, and money management.
Extensively skilled in customer service and hospitality;
handle customer inquiries, complaint resolution.

2007 - Present Triple J Screen Printing Chico, CA

Graphic Artist

Prepare and manipulate raster and vector images recieved from clients for screen printing and embroidery.
Create artwork for client shirt designs from initial schematics to the final product.
Correspond with clients throughout development process by presenting art proofs of shirt designs, e-mailing updated information, and one-on-one meetings.
Color seperate artwork with Freehand MX, print films, prepare films and information for production department, and create mock-ups of shirts for Web Site.

1992 - 1996 Fat Tuesday's Warrenton, VA

Bartender

Developed strong skills in customer service, high volume food and beverage sales, and restaurant management.
Developed keen insight for customer relations, hospitality, and regulating steady cliental.